12/23/03				x	For some reason I can't run VSTATS anymore. Evidently, Bruce changed the code to point to a K: drive. My K: drive was mapped to a different drive. I deleted the mapping and remapped but they've changed the naming scheme of the server and I can't run the batch files. When I copied the run*.bat and the ipda*.xml files to my C: drive and edited to point to the full path for the 'K:' drive which is now K:\Ip3lin\data\shared\sounding\java\autovstats. it almost worked but there must be other code with the K: drive in as it used to be (K:\shared\shared\sounding\java\autovstats) because it then gets to a point and refuses to work again.
